

Brief Profile.

Awanti Kumar Kankaria is a commerce graduate from St. Xaviers' College, Calcutta. Presently he is controlling two jute mills and with vast and extensive knowledge on jute / textiles sector, he has greatly enriched the said jute mills technically and commercially. In the journey of his rich experience in jute sector, he had been associated with IJIRA as vice chairman and currently associated as committee member of the India Jute Mills Association. He takes active participation in philanthropic and charitable activities.