

Mr.Raghav Kajaria
Promoter & Director

Mr. Raghav Kajaria is graduated in industrial economics from the University of Warwick after having taken a pedagogical elementary and secondary education at a British boarding school – Hurtwood House in Surrey, England.

Mr. Raghav has joined the family business at the age of 21; since then, he grew systemically learning jute business in bits and parts. Currently besides being the Promoter & Director of the Bio Jute Products Pvt. Ltd, a Unit set-up within the “Shaktigarh Jute Park” for manufacturing multifarious “Jute Diversified Products” (JDPs), he remains engaged in the affairs of the Murlidhar Ratanlal Exports Ltd., one of the largest manufacturers and exporters of Jute Goods in the world. The company has multiple Jute manufacturing units including Hastings Jute Mill at Rishra, India Jute Mill at Serampore and Gondalpara Jute Mill at Chandernagore, West Bengal. Additionally, MREL has promoted a green field Jute Park in Shaktigarh, Burdwan and set up the anchor unit there. MREL is a company dedicated towards Jute and its interests lie across the entire value chain of Jute. Employing excess of 18,000 persons, the company caters to the entire product range of Jute and also has a specialized bag-making unit at Ghusuri.